PRESS RELEASE

LEHMAN, LEE & XU ATTORNEYS ATTEND LAW SCHOOL BUILDING DEDICATION CEREMONY AT JIAOTONG UNIVERSITYS

Shanghai, China – Saturday, September 20, 2008.

Lehman, Lee & Xu was invited to attend the re-naming ceremony at Jiao Tong University, in which the Law School of Shanghai Jiao Tong University was renamed “KoGuan Law School of Shanghai Jiao Tong University.” The law school was renamed in recognition of Mr. Leo KouGuan’s generous contributions and support for the law school. On July 31, 2007, the Leo KouGuan Foundation donated USD 30 million to the Law School to construct a law building on the university’s Xuhui campus as well as to attract nationally recognized scholars and professors, noted for their contributions in the study of law. Attending the ceremony were senior officials of the Shanghai government, Justice’s of the Shanghai People’s Courts as well as the Deans of several prominent Chinese law schools. Attending the ceremony for Lehman, Lee & Xu was Scott Garner, Shanghai Office Director.

Leo Koguan is the Chairman of the Leo Koguan Foundation and the Founder and Chairman of Software House International, a global procurement outsourcing company and leading business to business solution provider. In 2006, Software House International was ranked by Forbes as the 167 largest private company in the United States with annual revenue of over USD 2 billion.. In Shanghai, he is currently building two hotels; one a 6-star Conrad Shanghai Hotel and the other a 7-star Jumeirah Hantang Xintiandi Hotel.

Mr. KoGuan serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of Asia Society, and he personally endowed a fund to sponsor “The Leo Koguan Program Series on US-China Relations”, promoting friendship between the US and China. He focuses his charity works on improving the well-being of higher education. He is currently the Honorary Trustee of Peking University, a Member of Board of Trustees and Honorary Professor of the Law School, Fudan University as well as the Honorary Member of the Board of Trustees of Shanghai Jiao Tong University and Honorary Professor of Shanghai Jiao Tong University KoGuan Law School.
