PRESS RELEASE

LEHMAN, LEE & XU SIGNS COOPERATION AGREEMENT WITH BEIJING UNIVERSITY OF AGRICULTURE

Beijing, China – Wednesday 19 November, 2008 –

Representatives from Lehman, Lee & Xu, a top three licensed-China law firm met last week with representatives of the esteemed Beijing University of Agriculture for a ceremony honoring their new partnership agreement. On November 13, Scott Garner, on behalf of Lehman, Lee & Xu and Hua Yuwu, on behalf of Beijing University of Agriculture, signed a document establishing their mutually cooperative relationship

In the future, Beijing University of Agriculture will host lectures to be given by legal counselors from Lehman, Lee & Xu on various selected topics for the benefit of its students and faculty.

The two parties will also establish an intern program, where students from Beijing University of Agriculture can gain valuable knowledge and practical skills through internship opportunities at a prestigious law firm.

“Our firm continually seeks to strengthen ties with the Beijing community,” said Mr. Ed Lehman, managing director of Lehman, Lee & Xu. “We see great value in academic partnerships, and I am very pleased to establish a relationship with such a respected university,”

In addition to the lecture series and the intern program, Beijing University of Agriculture has agreed to offer intellectual support and research assistance to the firm. In the future, the university and the firm hope to cooperate on authorship of legal scholarly publications.

Beijing University of Agriculture is a higher learning institution in Beijing that specializes in offering degrees in the areas of farming and forestry studies. Through numerous awards, the university has gained a reputation for its students’ commitment to integrity and social service. The university currently offers degrees in 22 undergraduate fields and 8 post-graduate fields. Lehman, Lee & Xu is a prominent Chinese corporate law firm and trademark and patent agency with offices throughout all mainland China, Hong Kong, Macau, and Mongolia. The firm has been
