PRESS RELEASE

EDWARD LEHMAN SELECTED AS A LEADING LAWYER IN THE ASIA-PACIFIC REGION

Beijing, China – April 26, 2007 Edward Lehman, managing director of Lehman, Lee & Xu had been awarded as one of the most highly acclaimed legal experts in the area of Intellectual Property in the Asia-Pacific Region by "Asialaw Leading Lawyers" survey.

"I'm humbled by Asialaw's recognition. I must thank my dedicated team of professionals in the firm's IP department, whom I am privileged enough to work with all these years. They are a bunch of fantastic people! Let's continue to strive our best to service our clients, not just within China, but globally," remarked by Edward Lehman.

Lehman, Lee & Xu is comprised of a law firm, trademark agency, and patent firm, all of which are leaders in the Intellectual Property field. Mr. Edward Lehman was honoured by the award, however, also credits his staff for their contribution. Edward Lehman has spent two decades in China and has represented hundreds of top multinationals in their IP and brand protection strategies.

The "Asialaw Leading Lawyers Survey" has been conducted annually since 1995 by Asia Law & Practice, a specialist division of Euromoney Institutional Investor PLC. In this year's survey, over 16,000 law firm clients and legal professionals were invited to nominate lawyers who, in their opinion, have consistently excelled in particular fields of legal practice over the past years, states Asia Law & Practice. The results will be published in the June 2007 edition.
