PRESS RELEASE

LEHMAN, LEE & XU PRESENTED TO WASHINGTON COLLEGE

May 26, 2008— Mr. Matthew McKee and Mr. Andrew Lillis, foreign legal counselors at Lehman, Lee & Xu, presented in Beijing on May 23, 2008 to business administration students participating in Washington College's Go! China program. The presentation provided a general summary of foreign direct investment procedures in China, legal business structures and intellectual property issues relevant to potential investors in the Chinese marketplace.

Foreign Legal Counselor Matthew McKee's practice primarily involves advising foreign clients on a wide variety of corporate issues, including foreign direct investment (FDI) matters and international taxation issues. Matthew is an Australian qualified lawyer with previous litigation experience in corporate, commercial and equity disputes and in banking and finance securities enforcement.

Foreign Legal Counselor Mr. Lillis' practice is comprised mainly of corporate law and business immigration issues, focusing on foreign direct investment and mergers & acquisitions. Mr. Lillis is New York qualified attorney and has previously served at the New Zealand Ministry of Education, and as an advisor on aviation policy for the Solomon Islands.

Lehman, Lee & Xu is a prominent Chinese corporate law firm and trademark and patent agency with offices in Beijing, Shanghai, Shenzhen, Hong Kong, Macau, and Mongolia. The firm is managed by Mr. Edward Lehman who is a long-time China resident, and is recognized as a leading expert on corporate law with 21 years of practice experience in Mainland China.
